work that coned be undertake in the Govt Press without previous sanction were fixed & for all additional printing Govt sanction was a condition precedent. Thus the general sanction given to the Comptroller previously was withdrawn & it is not likely that the policy of last year will be so soon reversed. The Secretary Insurance Commissioner can not the works he would wish to get printed at the Govt Press & Govt after satisfying themselves as to this necessity will sanction & approved the Insurance Secretary will be informed accordingly.

3 As regards the supply of stationery articles, the Insurance Secretary is one of the account officers included in appendix B of the stationery Rules for whom stationery articles are supplied free. The quantity supplied is regulated on the basis of the past three years average.

Appendix A shows the classes of articles to be supplied to particular offices.

4 The Public Branch of the Insurance Office is not to be treated as a new Office now created. Only additional hands have been entertained to cope with additional work undertaken by the Head Office. If this view is correct no fresh sanction for the supply of stationery is needed and an explanation as to the additional establt for which increased supplies are needed being sufficient under rule 12 of the Stationery Rules —
